

2007-2008 SENIOR NEWS (#16) -- Mar. 31, 2008

BROYHILL LEADERSHIP CONFERENCE: The Broyhill Leadership Conference is a unique leadership program; each summer BLC positively affects hundreds of young people's lives. BLC is open to rising 10th graders through college age students who are interested in personal development and leadership training. The BLC staff is an outstanding group of people. All are educators who have been carefully selected and are committed to providing the highest caliber of leadership training. The event will take place July 6 – 10, 2008 on the campus of Queens University of Charlotte in Charlotte, NC. The $220 fee includes: The BLC Handbook, Four nights' lodging, and all meals (breakfast, lunch, and dinner). Early registration is only $200 if your application is postmarked by June 2, 2008. Apply at www.broyhill-leadership.org.

SOUTHERN WESLEYAN UNIVERSITY SCHOLARSHIPS: Southern Wesleyan University has institutional scholarships that range between $3,000 and $7,500 per year. These scholarships are renewable providing a minimum GPA is maintained. A traditional SWU student has a minimum cumulative high school GPA of 2.25-4.0 with test scores that begin at 17 ACT or 800 SAT. This range will guarantee a merit award.

KIDS' CHANCE OF SOUTH CAROLINA SCHOLARSHIP: Kids' Chance of South Carolina, Inc. is committed to improving the educational choices of children whose families have sustained an economic loss. The loss must have been a result of a serious injury or death caused by an accident or injury for which benefits have been paid under the South Carolina Workers Compensation Act. The worker must have been injured while working for a South Carolina employer or as a self-employed resident of South Carolina. The family must have had a substantial decline in family income, and the student must meet acceptable academic standards. To obtain an application, call 803-356-5862 or visit the website at www.kidschancesc.org.
